

Labour Cost Index

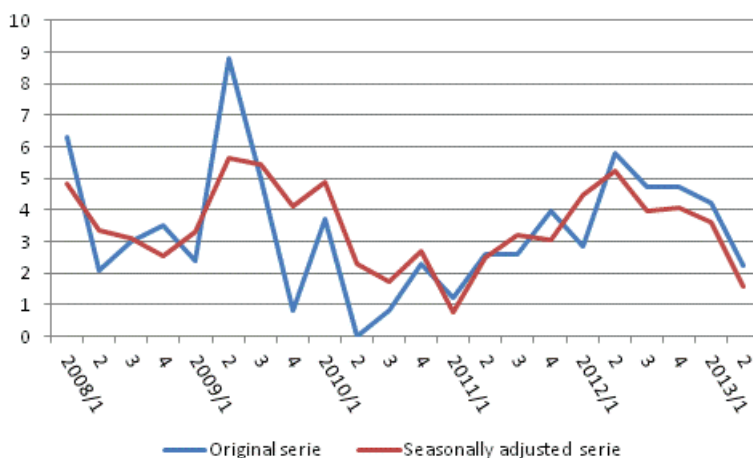

2013, 2nd quarter

Cost of an hour worked increased by 2.2 per cent in April to June

In the private sector, labour costs increased by 2.2 per cent in April to June 2013 when compared with the respective period of the year before. Seasonally adjusted labour costs in the private sector rose by 1.6 per cent in April to June 2013. Labour costs excluding one-off items, such as performance-based bonuses, rose by 1.2 per cent compared with the respective period of the year before. In the corresponding period, the index of wage and salary earnings rose by 2.1 per cent in the private sector.

In the central government sector, labour costs grew by 0.3 per cent in April to June 2013 when compared with the respective period of the year before. Labour costs excluding one-off items, such as performance-based bonuses, rose by 0.1 per cent compared with the respective period of the year before. In the local government sector, labour costs increased 1.6 per cent and costs excluding one-off items rose 1.0 per cent in April to June. The second quarter of 2013 had one working day more than the corresponding period in the year before. The increase of working days decreases labour costs in the Labour Cost Index.

Year-on-year change in labour costs in the private sector from the respective quarter of previous year %, original and seasonally adjusted series

The series of the Labour cost index are seasonally adjusted with the Tramo/Seats method. The latest observations of the series adjusted for seasonal and random variation become revised with new observations in seasonal adjustment methods. Revisions especially at turning points of economic trends may be significant, which should be taken into consideration when using seasonally adjusted and trend data. Further information on the seasonal adjustment method: http://www.tilastokeskus.fi/til/tramo_seats_en.html.

Calculated by industry, the cost of an hour worked in all manufacturing increased by 3.0 per cent in April to June 2013 when compared with the respective period of the year before. The cost of an hour worked increased in the transportation and storage industry by 0.1 per cent and increased in construction by 3.0 per cent in April to June 2013 when compared with the respective period of the year before. In the business services sector the rise amounted to 1.6 per cent. In the financial and insurance activities the rise amounted to 9.8 per cent. Nearly three quarters of the rise was based on the rise in one-off items, such as performance-based bonuses.

Seasonally adjusted cost of an hour worked rose by 2.2 per cent in all manufacturing in April to June 2013 when compared with the respective period of the year before. In the transportation and storage industry, the cost of an hour worked decreased by 0.4 per cent and went up in construction by 2.7 per cent in the April to June period of 2013 from the same period of the previous year. The respective rise in business service activities was 1.4 per cent. In the financial and insurance activities the cost of an hour worked increased 10.5 per cent.

1) 1st release refers to the point of time when data for the reference period were first published. Revision describes the difference on annual change percentages between the first and the latest release. The labour cost index for the central government sector has been published since June 2012, and the index for the local government sector since September 2012. The revisions are calculated from rounded numbers.

Revisions to data on annual changes in the seasonally adjusted labour cost index¹⁾
